

ANNOUNCEMENT

THE CENTRAL BANK OF CHINA

(90) Tai Yang Fa No. 030064436

Date: 30th December 2001

Subject:

The Central Bank of China will issue a New Taiwan Dollar banknote in the denomination of NT$200 on 2nd January 2002, to be circulated concurrently with the existing banknotes.

Authority:

The authority is based on Article 13 and 15 of the Central Bank of China Act, Regulations Governing the Issue of New Taiwan Currency by the Central Bank of China, Executive Yuan directive: Tai (88) Tsai No. 17890 dated 7th May, 1999.

Description:

I. Design and Specifications:

1. Denomination: NT$200
2. Dimensions: 150mm × 70mm
3. Material: Paper
4. Main Color: Green
5. Design:

Obverse: A portrait of the late President Chiang Kai-Shek forms the main design. The intaglio printing reads “The Republic of China”, “The Central Bank of China”, “Two Hundred Dollars” and “200”.

Reverse: The main design shows the Presidential Office.

II. The new banknotes are printed by China Engraving & Printing Works. The engraving was made in 2001.

III. The new banknotes will be circulated simultaneously in Taiwan, Kinmen and Matsu region.